JAPAN SENDING FINE EXHIBIT TO CHILE FAIR

A varied and well-selected exhibit of manufactured products of Japan to be displayed at Valparaiso (Chile), in charge of Commissioner Onikichi Hayashi and a corps of assistants, passed through Honolulu yesterday in the Toyo Kisen Kaisha Selyo Maru.

Hundreds of cases of the wares, valued at thousands of dollars, are to be unpacked and shown at the big commercial exposition to open in the Chilean city the early part of July. The Japanese commissioner is supplied with quantities of literature pertaining to the island empire and its possibilities. During the few hours allotted to a visit at Honolulu, Commissioner Hayashi paid his respects to the local Japanese consulate. Officers in the Selyo Maru said today that Japan is assisting colonists to settle in Peru and Chile.

More than 400 Asiatic passengers are en route to the west coast in the steamer. It called at Honolulu for pratique and steamed to Hilo at noon today to deliver 583 tons of Oriental freight. Federal Customs inspectors Dodd, Neil and Boyen will accompany the Selyo to Hawaii. They will remain with the vessel until its departure the latter part of the week.

The Selyo Maru is commanded by Capt. T. Maki, who was formerly a first officer in the T. K. M. Shinyo Maru. The steamer left Hongkong May 12, and before clearing for Yokohama was filled with general cargo. It landed 15 sacks of Oriental mail at Honolulu.
